HAMBLE VILLAGE MEMORIAL HALL

Welcome to the Hamble Village Memorial Hall in the beautiful village of Hamble-le-Rice situated just outside Southampton on the south coast of England.

The Memorial hall was originally built in 1933 but was extensively refurbished in May 2003 and now provides a stunning venue for wedding receptions, parties, celebrations, theatre, concerts, dance, as well as special interest clubs, training events and meetings and social and community activities.

The Hall is a registered charity and is independently managed by its trustees which are elected yearly. There are two halls and a meeting room.

Please use this brochure to familiarise yourself with our facilities here at Hamble Village Memorial Hall and we hope you will consider us to meet your needs, be it professional or social.
